Play Pleases Audience

Under the auspices of the Ladies Aid, the Oyen dramatic club presented the three act comedy "Her Honor the Mayor" last Friday and Saturday. In spite of the heavy rain Friday there was a good attendance on the opening night and a fair attendance Saturday, but many who intended to come in from the country could not do so on account of the condition of the roads, and for this reason a repeat performance will be given next Saturday.

In an endeavour to prevent Lester Parmenter, a candidate for the office of Mayor, making an anti-suffragette speech, his campaign manager arranges to have him put to sleep for a few hours—but the plot miscarries with most surprising results.

What happened was very ably portrayed by the following players: Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Kemp, Mr. Gordon Caswell, Mrs. J. P. Rorabeck, Mrs. E. D. Thygesen, Miss A. M. Todd, Miss C. Andersen and Ernest Trewin.

Members of the cast were

Excel Ladies Aid

Excel Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Wetheral on Thursday, May 2. Roll call showed a fair attendance with the added pleasure of Rev. and Mrs. Kemp's presence. A very nice "Mothers' Day" story was read by Mrs. E. L. Gullekson who also read a "Mothers' Day" poem. A cake guessing contest directed by Mrs. F. Bishop caused much fun and was won by Mrs. Wetheral and Mr. Kemp. The next meeting of the "Aid" will be held at the home of Mrs. E. H. Church, roll call to be answered by a verse from the Book of Luke. Mrs. A. Bakken and Mrs. C. Bishop are the program committee.
